

Eurobase continues expansion with hire of Sales Director

London, UK – 28th November 2008 – Eurobase Banking Solutions are pleased to welcome John Barratt who has joined the division as Sales Director. John joins Eurobase with 30 years international and Forex experience with Barclays, Cognotec and Thompson Reuters as previous employers.

John, who will be part of the team generating new business opportunities for the companies leading Siena eTrading products in markets worldwide, commented, "Eurobase is a logical move for me with the background I have in e-trading sales. This is a rapidly expanding company with a number of key business wins and a strong pipeline of opportunity. In this turbulent time, as the market focuses on more sales centric trading models, I see Eurobase as ideally positioned to assist Banks with the management of their e-trading operations".

Commenting on the appointment, John Wilson CEO of Eurobase International, said: "We are delighted to welcome John to Eurobase. Eurobase Banking Solutions has experienced increased profile, profitability and growth in recent years and we are now ideally placed to expand our operations. John's background and experience will provide an excellent compliment to the strong management team already in place."

The appointment comes as Eurobase Banking Solutions expands its staff to meet demand for its electronic trading products in the areas of rate management, price distribution and trade execution. Further Eurobase project wins are expected to be announced in the coming weeks.
