

Eurobase People secure 3 year contract agreement to supply contract staff to the Houses of Parliament

1st April 2009 – after a comprehensive tender process followed by a competitive bid Eurobase People have been selected to supply the Houses of Parliament with contract IT staff for a 3 year period.

This agreement covers the House of Lords, the House of Commons and PICT and represents a significant step in Eurobase People's continuing drive to expand into the public sector.

Comments Clive Newton, Operations Director at Eurobase People. "To win this prestigious account against extensive competition in an open bid process represents a significant success for Eurobase People. It highlights our credentials to supply a high level of IT recruitment expertise combined with cost savings into the public sector. This builds on our strong reputation in the private sector. We look forward to servicing this new account".
